

Young Professionals Committee

Member Expectations

2022-2023

The expectations of members of the CJI Young Professionals Committee (“YPC”) are as follows:

- Regular attendance and active participation at YPC meetings. YPC meetings are typically held on a monthly basis.
- Attendance at either the annual CJI membership breakfast (typically held in June) or the annual CJI Judicial Excellence Awards dinner (typically held in October or November); preferably both.
- Attendance at two other CJI events throughout the year.
- Active participation on at least one CJI committee, such as:
 - Audit/Finance
 - Judicial Education
 - Nominating
 - Awards
 - Education & Outreach
 - Diversity on the Bench
 - Events & Development
- Active participation on at least one YPC subcommittee, which are formed to carry out YPC projects and events. For example, the YPC has formed subcommittees to plan a networking happy hour, spearhead efforts to recruit members from the Western slope, and create a mentorship program.
- Maintain active membership in CJI.
